

Housewives Who Know Flour

Prefer White River Whole Wheat Flour for bread making. They know that it works nicely and makes more bread to the sack than can be milled from soft valley flour. A popular flour at a popular price.

The ball game that was to have played here this afternoon between Astoria and an all-Portland team has been called off. Manager Fletcher received word yesterday from the Portlanders stating that they would be unable to play, owing to the fact that several of their players could not arrange a game with some other team, but was unable to do so.

George W. Hume received a telegram yesterday morning from Hong Kong, stating that his bark, the Will-scott, had arrived after a passage of 11 days from New York. She carried a cargo of oil. Mr. Hume has been in the shipping business for 50 years, and as yet, no hoodoo has entered his feet; during the score and ten years, he has only lost one vessel, and that was a small schooner.

Judge Nelson had a little grinding to do at the city's justice mill yesterday. Mat Mackevest and E. Barth were fined $10 each for yelling and howling on the streets. M. B. The Herald, regarding the Typographical Union, says: "At a special meeting of the Astoria Council, Federation of Labor, the action of the Typographical Union in raising the price of composition to 25 cents a thousand was endorsed and the council pledged its support to the union. As wages of all kinds are advancing and the cost of living increasing, the price is not too much. There is no reason why compositors should not be paid living wages."

Harry Lauderback committed suicide at Tongue Point last evening by shooting himself in the face. We learn that he shot himself three times. He formerly fished for Hanthorn's cannery; he also had worked on different bar tugs around here. He was well known among Astorians, having lived about here for nearly a score of years. It is reported that the cause of the rash deed was disappointment in a love affair. The body was brought to Astoria this morning.

The Chamber of Commerce and the Push Club are working hard on a booklet to be issued about September 1st, and which is to tell the world all about the great things of Astoria and Clatsop county. It is to be a beautifully illustrated affair, and will contain an hundred pages. The illustrations will show scenes picturing all the various interests of this county. This will appeal to men of almost every out-of-door business—farmers, lumbermen, diarmen, fruit growers and others. It will be sent to all parties who wish to know of this county and its wonders. Ten thousand copies will be issued for the first edition, and other editions will follow when needed. It will fill a long-felt want, as business men here receive letters every day from parties who wish to have out Oregon way and are interested in this part of the state—which, of course, is the best part. The gentlemen who are getting this book up are men who are thoroughly acquainted with the city and surrounding country.

M. E. Bozorth returned Friday night from an eight months' stay at his mines in Josephine county, in the Wolf creek district. Mr. Bozorth is very much pleased with his prospects. He states that the country around the mining lands in Southern Oregon is being settled up very rapidly; within the next few days, an excursion is to be run out from the East, composed of over one hundred miners, who will look over the Oregon country and locate here. All of them are said to be old time miners, and are all leaving other mines to come out this way. The company in which Mr. Bozorth is interested is named the Wolf Creek Mining and Developing Company. They own 180 acres of placer mining land and four quartz claims. The 180 acres is covered with some 5,000,000 feet of timber, most of it being fir, although there is some sugar pine and cedar among it. They will begin to work the mines as soon as the water starts to run. Mr. Bozorth will remain in Astoria about six weeks before returning to Josephine county. He said that the climate in the southern part of the state could not be excelled. He also states that the people who thought that all Oregon mines were nothing but "pocket mines" are beginning to find out that they were mistaken; a company near Mr. Bozorth's claims is getting good paying quartz at a depth of a thousand feet. A great deal of Eastern capital is being invested in the mines of the Southern part of this state.

NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED AT SEA.

The new system of wireless telegraphy renders it possible the realization of the prediction that newspapers would be published on the ocean liners. They could not, however, be as much up-to-date or effective as those published on land. In this respect they would differ widely from the famous Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, because it has been proven to be just as effective on sea as on land. We would therefore urge everyone contemplating an ocean trip to take a supply with them. It is invaluable as a tonic and preventive of sea-sickness. Those who remain on land should always keep a bottle of it in the house to cure heartburn, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation and malaria. Don't fail to try it.

Ingelton is having a big reduction sale on shirt-waists, skirts, children's clothes, infants' clothes, and all kind of ladies' and children's furnishing goods, including hair switches and pompadours.
